25X1 [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] Deputy Chief of I&S, has just left my office after 25X1 discussing an employee named [redacted] a CAF-7 in [redacted] 25X1 office. Briefly the story is this. The Los Angeles I&S office may 25X1 be closed in the near future. [redacted] is an employee there who 25X1 has done a very fine job for I&S and who is considered a very 25X1 capable woman. [redacted] is interested in doing something for her and thought that we might use her at Reseda. I told him that she might possibly become an English monitor if she were interested and qualified, but that I was extremely pessimistic about our considering any more locally hired people as editors. I did tell him, however, that we certainly would give her the courtesy of an interview if she desires one.

25X1 [redacted] will notify [redacted] to get in touch with you with 25X1 reference to this matter. You should not contact [redacted] or take the initiative since I do not think the employees in the Los Angeles office are aware of the fact that their office may be closed. If 25X1 and when [redacted] contacts you, please give [redacted] the courtesy of an interview and advise me of your desires and recommendations.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
